Subject: Draft writeup for EJ Taskforce Website

Draft USEPA addition:

The Navy is the lead agency responsible for the investigation and cleanup of the Hunters Point Naval Shipyard. EPA, along with its partner regulatory agencies at California EPA, oversees and enforces Navy compliance with Superfund laws to ensure the cleanup at the Shipyard protects human health and the environment. For any questions or concerns related to the Shipyard, please contact Derek Robinson (Navy) at 619-524-6026, Lily Lee (USEPA) at 415-947-4187 or Jackie Lane (USEPA) at 415-972-3236. Please contact Lennar or the City of San Francisco for any concerns or questions related to Lennar's activities outside the Shipyard.
